

for more than just law.

Ryan Lee.

With 7 years of qualified legal experience in private practice law firms and as in-house legal counsel, Ryan provides holistic advice to clients and/or business units operating in Australia.

Ryan's practice areas include:

- Tender processes/Procurement Contracts;
- Service Agreements including Master Service Agreements (MSA), Software as a Service (SaaS), Consultancy Agreements;
- International Memorandum of Understandings (MOU) between universities and global organizations such as UNESCO;
- Non-Disclosure Agreements (NDA) between financial institutions and universities;
- Property settlements, developments, building contracts, retirement homes;
- Advising on the Foreign Investor Review Board (FIRB) framework in relation to property acquisitions by foreign nationals
- Commercial and retail leases;
- Business acquisitions/disposals from various sectors including retail, food & beverage and fast-moving consumer goods;
- Franchising;
- Private loan agreements;
- Wills and Powers of Attorney;
- Advising on implications stemming from family and employment law;

In 2014, Ryan worked as a paralegal and graduated from the Australian National University in November 2015. After his admission in October 2016, Ryan's straightforward and down to earth lawyering saw him become one of the recommended lawyers in Canberra, especially among the Chinese community. In 2020, his sincerity and dedication saw him being promoted to Associate at Chamberlains Law Firm.

In 2022, Ryan brought his skills to his alma mater, the Australian National University where he advised on significant contracts for the University, canvassing policy issues including privacy, modern slavery and IT security.

In his free time, Ryan enjoys playing futsal, computer gaming, talking about his cat and random trips to country towns.

Ground Floor
34 Colin Street
West Perth WA 6005

T 08 6381 8870
F 08 9481 2038
W www.lawfield.com.au

